And write but—I promised to write to you and I intend to do so as I agree it most always if it lays into my power to do so, Catherine I want you to write as soon as you get this and tell me if it address right or not, I wish I could write German but I cant I can understand the language but—I never learned to write it—but I shall if I ever have a chance to learn and I think I shall soon if there is any in our city that can write German and if you saw try to write English and you will find the most of it some time if not now for I find it good to understand different languages. For it seen easier when some letens they are getting any thing about one I seen some times betch them, I donnt understand 4 different languages and one is English German French
