Camp Near Stevensburg, O. C.
February 12th, 1864

Dear Friend:

As we have been some I will try and send a few lines
To inform you that we are yet in the army of the Potomac now and are well and hope that our few lines will find you well when you may the Enjoy your self as well as I am now. I am on my short where it is as warm as you please and could more at home than here. Than I have been before in Some time. The army is lying still now and as long as they are.
So I am where I have not much to do only to put wood and keep in fire and write letter in we arrived here on Tuesday the 12th and it was...
