Was a blanket tree laid their untill morning and then went to the stable yard to get our horses. We got them about 8 in the afternoon. We took our 110 horses and started for the arsenal to get our guns and harness but our smart horse didn't make out our Reeves and started and then we went out on the Capitol hill. That is a mile from the Capitol tree. Put our horses out and they went down town and got some salt junk and bread and water and by that time we was pretty hungry and after supper we went up to the stable and took care of our horses and then took our blankets and laid out on the grass and slept there untill about 6 and then we started for home and then in a few days we went for our guns and then the third tree had orders for to move and yesterday morning we
