stayed there and my Fire is nearly out considerable now and my Food is running very gke yet I think that you may have it sooner than I if I am not very I think that I have seen you with you here twice or three times and not once at home and well dun there we are still here moved a little yet the wind is blowing like fur that you will see by the reed that I am attempting to do and all the baggage wagons are all ordered to the rear that look on if they intend to fight some how a boat her so they are a getting there are out of the way as they generally do be for a fight takes place but I don't see how it is as the rebels are not with in nine miles of here with much force and our troops are advancing all the white howling I think that we will move to day some time far the locomotive was a coming all night long