get half of had better not have been born they kill their prisoners the union soldiers don't take any of them prisoners. As I have told you before this town and the country round here under our protection is full of refuges and most of our boys are having good times with them. Attending dances and other parties at their houses almost every night. I have not seen to-day their proclivities get as their civilization is of altogether here to primitive a kind for one to find white men among in their society nobody likes to attend a pleasant
