soon get schooled to it. I wish my heart that I had some argument to convince you that it was your bound-duty to write me a letter occasionally.
Now a course you would do it. At least once a month. That is about as often

I don’t get the letters. Now the reason for my writing this letter is that I have just received one that Esther wrote last summer some time. I have wrote all the news there is and told all the less I can think of and all respectfully
