complete. And next Monday we commence our calvalry drill. I do not think we will have much duty to do this winter. And we anticipate having good times, if we do not it will be our own fault. Or rather the fault of those fools in the regiment who draw whisky more than is the good of the regiment. Every reg'nt is used with more or less of these whisky suckers, and they are the cause of a good deal of annoyance to all. There is a street-railway from here to town. Though I forgot to tell you
