a year. I should like to git-on his back some winnin' and come out there and see how you are all gettin' along. You said something about sendin my Christmas presents well I should be happy to pay all costs on it if you do. It is all the same to pay the costs at either end of the line. So you can just send it along and I will make it right with the Express compa But either now do not put yourself to any trouble or expense on my account for I am gettin' along finicky and beside Christian add yourself have already done more for me than I have ever deserved or shall ever be able to pay. The best part.
