days of my life have been spent under your roof, for there was no discord there. Well perhaps I shall have a home of my own sometime.

If I do may it be as happy as one at yours, I wrote you only a day or two ago. So you will be apt to get both letters at once and will not care to have this or long letters will be apt to come to this place day by day and regularly. Now that we have got our horses we will be quite busy most of the day and time will pass off more lively.

How is Ida, Claire and her brothers. I am over Robert and Oliva O'Daly.
