I have said I did not enjoy the full light of the gospel as I wished to, then seems to be something in this. I have tried what it would be if I am unable to make out, until it is that I have done many things and have not asked for forgiveness. Being anxious to do all on my part to accomplish the great End of Salvation, I take this occasion to ask Mother for her tender heart for all the things that I have done to may God himself assist us that our last days may be our last days.

I am sorry to hear that Seneca remains so ill and unpleased but in all cases suffer more rather than do wrong.

I was very glad to hear from May. I hope she will write again. Tell me about Mrs. Smith and oblige me by your writing soon to Royal.

God be merciful to my family is my prayer.
