Take what things he has got send them to you by express to you which I will do the first Place I have there is about 200 of us hear in one Room and it is very unpleasant hear for a sick man.

Mr. Potter has just requested me to say to you in ease of his Death he wants you not take it to heart any more than you Can help and bear up under the Troubles of this World and trust in the Lord and all will he sends his love to all the Family. Respectfully yours, A. M. Tapp

Dear Wife Good Bye,

Come in a little
Not in good eye

Mary good bye

Elmer good bye to find him. Please good bye to find him.

Marta good bye

Flying away from home is a terrible blow to song heart bleed for you Good Bye. Royal E. Potter
