1893, he ran far ahead of his ticket in a strong Democratic locality. Mr. Campbell has been a resident of Monroe since his birth in 1850. His education was acquired in the public schools of the city, and later, at the U. of M. Five years of travel and study in Germany have also helped to give him a knowledge of men and affairs that have had much to do with his success in life.

A man of the most genial disposition, more than ordinary intelligence, executive ability, and tenacity of purpose, he is one whom you can well be proud to call your friend, and His Excellency also desires to acknowledge indebtedness for many favors shown to its representatives by Mr. H. W. Campbell.

Charles A. Golden.
City attorney, is serving his first term in this capacity, but has practiced law in the city for the past twenty years. He is a native of Monroe, born in 1854, and has always resided here, except when pursuing his studies. He graduated in 1877 from St. Vincent's College, Muncie, Ind., and from the Law Department of the University of Michigan in 1858. He immediately settled in Monroe and entered upon the practice of his profession, in which he has been successful to a marked degree. He has been circuit court commissioner two years, supervisor one year, and prosecuting attor.
