COMMUNITY
OF MONROE COUNTY

What is One Book, One Community?

Each year, the One Book, One Community (OBOC) of Monroe County selection committee chooses a readily available and discussable book written by a major author. Monroe County residents are invited to read the same book and discuss it through a series of free programs every spring.

OBOC events feature book discussions and free, county-wide community activities related to the themes raised by provocative and inspiring stories. This year's program will take place March 17– April 11, 2014.

Author Visit March 26, 2014

Reyna Grande will visit the Monroe County Community College (MCCC) Campus on March 26, 2014. She will be meeting with students during the day. Afternoon and evening events include a VIP reception hosted by the OBOC committee and a public book signing and author presentation to be held in the MCCC La-Z-Boy Meyer Theater. The discussion and book signing are free and open to the public.

Featured book for 2014, The Distance Between Us by Reyna Grande.

Q: What do Emeril, Lagasse, Wolfgang Puck and Gordon Ramsay have in common?

A: Food doesn't make it to the table on it's own. They all need Waiters!

Join us for the Inaugural One Book, One Community Celebrity Waiter night.

We're looking for 15 Monroe Celebrities who are willing to don the apron and serve up a night of fun in support of Monroe's only county wide community reading project.

When: March 10, 2014

Where: La Fiesta Cantina and Restaurant, 11191 Telegraph Rd.

Time: 5-9 p.m.

Duties:

1. Help us fill a table with 8 of your best and most hungry guests.
2. Serve your special guests throughout the night from a menu specially created for our evening. Waiters will be assisted by La Fiesta servers.
3. Diners generously tip for their expertly served meal and 100% of the proceeds go to support the One Book, One Community Reading Project.

Timeline:

5:00 p.m. Server Training. 5:30 Guests Arrive & Cocktails, 6:00 p.m. Service begins, 8-9 p.m. service concludes.

Yes, I want to be a celebrity waiter!
