Round up your family and friends and come out on Wednesday, March 13th and join One Book, One Community as we officially kick off our 2019 county-wide reading project.

Join us at 6:00 in the MCCC atrium for music, light refreshments, a used book sale, and family-friendly fun. Explore Plains Indian artifacts with Gerry Wykes from the Monroe County Museum. At 7:00 we will move to the Meyer Theater to see a performance by renowned storyteller Genot Picor. Picor will entertain audience members with a program created specifically for our 2019 book selection, News of the World.

The evening will conclude with a raffle for a Ring Wi-Fi enabled video doorbell.

Mark your calendar and join us as we commence the 13th year of our community read.
