

Course Information

Division	Humanities/Social Sciences
Contact Hours	60
Total Credits	4

Prerequisites

Prerequisite: FREN 152 or two years high school French

Course Description

This course will be a review of grammar and practice in oral and written French, based on selected readings and lectures. This course emphasizes writing and reading skills. Short papers and essays will be written in French. This class will culminate in the writing of a research paper in French. This course is a satisfier course for the Global Studies Degree Designation.

Course Outcomes

In order to evidence success in this course, the students will be able to:

1. Identify the four tenses: present, simple past, future, and imperfect
2. Recognize usage of intermediate vocabulary
3. Identify vocabulary related to major units
4. Recognize verb conjugations and usages
5. Identify various source materials used for historical research
6. Recognize French culture and events in French history
7. Demonstrate the ability to write short essays in the target language using the four aforementioned tenses
8. Demonstrate the ability to use the target language in an intermediate level conversation and/or reading material and in writing
9. Demonstrate the ability to research French related historical figures and information to compile a research paper written in the target language
10. Demonstrate the ability to write an entire documented research paper in the target language with documented citations and then compile the information into a report in the target language