Course Information
Division: Humanities and Social Sciences
Contact Hours: 60
Total Credits: 4

Prerequisites
German 251 or three years of high school German

Course Description
The student will continue exploring authentic materials and literature. Practice of the four basic language skills—reading, writing, listening and speaking will continue at an advanced level. This course is a continuation of German 251.

Course Outcomes
In order to evidence success in this course, the students will be able to:

1. Recognize more advanced and complex grammatical structures
2. Recognize the forms and uses of the subjunctive
3. Recognize how to use passive forms and their substitutes
4. Demonstrate the ability to read and comprehend selected samples of literature and other authentic text
5. Demonstrate the ability to write short papers and letters using passive forms, subjunctive forms, dependent clauses and infinitive phrases
6. Demonstrate the ability to converse and communicate on a variety of topics used and practiced in class which includes the ability to ask and answer questions appropriately as would be expected during a stay in a German speaking country

Date Updated: January 2015
By: