Course Information
Division: Humanities and Social Sciences
Contact Hours: 30
Total Credits: 2

Prerequisite
ENGL 090 and RDG 090, or qualifying scores on ACT or COMPASS tests

Course Description
This class is designed for people seeking greater awareness of the aesthetic content of "classical" music. The forms, styles, methods of composition and composers are discussed and analyzed as a basis for intelligent listening and appreciation.

Course Outcomes
In order to evidence success in this course, the students will be able to:

1. Identify the main theme of each movement or piece
2. Identify the name of the different instruments playing the theme or composition
3. Recognize the period of music and type of specific compositions
4. Demonstrate the ability to compare and contrast musical periods and various pieces in writing
5. Explain how the different periods of music affected the lives of the people during that time frame
6. Explain how music can affect each of us
7. Describe the importance of music to our well-being and general knowledge

Date Updated: January 2015
By: