Monroe Township Fire Dept. also arrived on the scene and after they checked out the driver for injuries, Officer spoke with driver who advised that she had been driving directly into the morning sun and just didn't see the pole.

The driver advised that she was not injured. Due to probable radiator damage driver was going to have the vehicle towed to Paul's Collision. Officer could find no damage to the concrete base nor the pole. A MCSO patrol car stopped by the scene and gave driver a county number for her insurance company.
