

AUTHOR VISIT:

A Thousand Letters Home author, Teresa Irish, will present the inspirational and life-affirming story of "The Journey of Letters." Following the 2006 death of her father, Aarol W. "Bud" Irish of Saginaw, MI, Teresa opened an Army trunk that contained row after row of her dad's nearly 1,000 letters from WWII. The firsthand account through the eyes of one soldier mirrors the journeys of many who survived WWII.

BOOK
one
COMMUNITY OF MONROE COUNTY

MARCH 14
to APRIL 9
2016

AUTHOR VISIT:

A Thousand Letters Home author, Teresa Irish, will present the inspirational and life-affirming story of "The Journey of Letters." Following the 2006 death of her father, Aarol W. "Bud" Irish of Saginaw, MI, Teresa opened an Army trunk that contained row after row of her dad's nearly 1,000 letters from WWII. The firsthand account through the eyes of one soldier mirrors the journeys of many who survived WWII.

BOOK
one
COMMUNITY OF MONROE COUNTY

MARCH 14
to APRIL 9
2016

AUTHOR VISIT:

A Thousand Letters Home author, Teresa Irish, will present the inspirational and life-affirming story of "The Journey of Letters." Following the 2006 death of her father, Aarol W. "Bud" Irish of Saginaw, MI, Teresa opened an Army trunk that contained row after row of her dad's nearly 1,000 letters from WWII. The firsthand account through the eyes of one soldier mirrors the journeys of many who survived WWII.

BOOK
one
COMMUNITY OF MONROE COUNTY

MARCH 14
to APRIL 9
2016

AUTHOR VISIT:

A Thousand Letters Home author, Teresa Irish, will present the inspirational and life-affirming story of "The Journey of Letters." Following the 2006 death of her father, Aarol W. "Bud" Irish of Saginaw, MI, Teresa opened an Army trunk that contained row after row of her dad's nearly 1,000 letters from WWII. The firsthand account through the eyes of one soldier mirrors the journeys of many who survived WWII.

BOOK
one
COMMUNITY OF MONROE COUNTY

MARCH 14
to APRIL 9
2016

