This course is designed to introduce beginning Chinese language learners to an effective way of speaking, listening, reading, and writing in culturally-appropriate Mandarin Chinese.

Students will be able to use basic Chinese phrases to assist in business and personal experiences involving Chinese communication.

For more information contact the Humanities / Social Sciences Office at 734-384-4153