

Due to concerns about Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19), the Monroe County Community College campus is closed to all external individuals through Sunday, April 12. This includes Main Campus, Whitman Center and Hurd Road.

For the remainder of the Winter Semester, MCCC is continuing to deliver classes via remote formats, including labs that can be moved to online formats.

Below is a list of all cancelled classes. Students enrolled in cancelled classes will receive an Incomplete ("I") and may re-enroll in any section of the same course when it is offered again in the Fall 2020 or Winter 2021 semesters, at no cost. Students may only re-enroll once per class for which they are awarded an Incomplete.

In the rare cases listed below, instruction for classes will continue to be delivered remotely, but students may need to complete some portion of the class face-to-face. If the class is not completed by the end of winter 2020 semester, students will be awarded an incomplete ("I") and provided the opportunity to complete the class as soon as the college returns to normal business hours and/or in the Fall 2020 and/or Winter 2021 semester. Students should continue to participate in these classes and follow directions from the respective faculty.
