

Course Information

Division	Humanities/Social Sciences
Course Number	CRJ 255
Contact Hours	45
Total Credits	3

Prerequisites

CRJ 154

Course Description

The administration of police-line operations including patrol, the investigative functions, traffic, vice control, youth services, and non-crime functions are emphasized. The purpose of this course is to have the student understand the administrative role a police department has in order to provide police services to a community.

Program Outcomes Addressed by this Course:

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to meet the program outcomes listed below:

- A. Develop knowledge and understanding of the functions and processes of the US Criminal Justice System
- B. Using critical thinking skills, develop and use problem solving skills in a variety of situations
- C. Understand criminal law both substantive and procedural, criminological concepts and the study of crime and criminality.
- D. Demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills.
- E. Discuss Constitutional protections applied to the criminal justice system.
- F. Promote professionalism through the use of ethics and diversity in course offerings.

Course Outcomes

In order to evidence success in this course, students will be able to:

1. Describe how police and their management function in the Criminal Justice System.
-Applies to program outcomes A,B,C,E,F
2. Describe how laws and the constitution affect police management.
-Applies to program outcomes A,B,C,E,F
3. Explain the basic tasks of police management.
-Applies to program outcomes A,B,C,D,E,F
4. Identify and explain the internal and external factors that affect police management.
-Applies to program outcomes A,B,C,D,E,F
5. Discuss the practical and ethical challenges associated with police administration.
-Applies to program outcomes A,B,C,D,E,F