

Notice of Vacancy
Monroe County Community College

Position	Electrical Engineering Technology Instructor, Applied Sciences and Engineering Technology Division
Description	Full-time position, responsible for teaching in the Associate of Applied Science (AAS) Electrical Engineering Technology program in the Division. Duties include teaching and advising AAS degree and certificate students in the Electrical Engineering Technology program. Courses include, but are not limited to, Basic Electricity and Electronics, AC/DC theory, basic wiring practices, programmable logic controllers, industrial motor controls, applications of the National Electric Code, microprocessors, robotics, instrumentation, automotive related digital electronics. Other areas may include renewable energy related coursework (solar and wind). Additional duties are; development and planning of program curriculum; organizing and conducting advisory meetings in support of the program; assisting with program recruitment and marketing; updating/maintaining equipment; and course/program review and evaluation.
Qualifications	Master's degree preferred. Bachelor's degree in a related technical field such as, Electrical Engineering, Electrical Engineering Technology or Automation/Mechatronics required. Other degree fields may be considered depending on experience and/or progress toward technical degree. Hands on industrial work experience preferred with electronic and electrical equipment. Must have competence in oral and written communication skills necessary for effective teaching and excellent computer skills. Computer skills should include the use of MS Office suite of software with emphasis on Word, Excel and PowerPoint software. Previous teaching experience highly desirable. Bachelor's degree holders: Minimum of 5 years full-time work experience in Industry. Master's degree holders: Minimum of 3 years full-time work experience in industry.
Salary	Salary may be negotiated depending on experience and education consistent with Faculty Bargaining Agreement in place. Faculty contract teaching load 15-18 hours/week, 162-day school year. Additional compensation for teaching additional classes during regular semesters, (Fall and Winter), and Summer may be available enrollment permitting.
Benefits	Health, dental, vision, life, and long-term disability insurance plans. Accrued sick leave, dependent tuition waiver, and retirement plan options.
Start Date	August 2020
Location	Monroe County Community College has been providing a variety of post-secondary opportunities for the residents of Monroe County, Michigan since 1964. Monroe County, with a population of 159,900, offers a quality rural and urban life style well situated between Detroit, Ann Arbor, and Toledo, Ohio. Graduate study is available at the University of Toledo, Wayne State University, Eastern Michigan University, The University of Michigan, and the University of Detroit.
Deadline	Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Application Process

Interested candidates should submit an MCCC faculty employment application (available at <http://www.monroecc.edu/jobs/>), letter of interest, resume, transcripts (official transcripts required upon hire), and two letters of recommendation to: Linda Marsh, Human Resources Specialist; Monroe County Community College; 1555 S. Raisinville Road; Monroe, MI 48161; lmash@monroecc.edu.

Monroe County Community College is an equal opportunity institution and adheres to a policy that no qualified person shall be discriminated against because of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, gender, marital status, disability, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, height, weight, or veteran's status in any program or activity for which it is responsible.