

Notice of Vacancy
Monroe County Community College

Position	Construction Management Instructor, Applied Sciences and Engineering Technology Division
Description	Full-time position, responsible for the Associate of Applied Science (AAS) Construction Management program in Division. Duties include teaching and advising AAS degree and certificate students in Construction Management. Teach variety of courses including, but not limited to, Materials and Methods, Basic Estimating, Architectural Blueprint Reading, Project Management, LEED, Renewable Energy, Construction Safety, and Site Specific Safety Plan Administration to both novice and experienced members of industry. Additional duties will include, development and planning of program curriculum, organizing and conducting advisory meetings in support of the program, assisting with program recruitment and marketing, and course/program review and evaluation.
Qualifications	Bachelor's degree required in Construction Management, Construction Engineering, Construction Engineering Technology, Civil Engineering, Civil Engineering Technology, Architecture, Architectural Engineering, or appropriate related technical field. Bachelor's degree holders: Minimum of 5 years full-time US commercial or industrial and/or residential construction industry experience with increasing levels of responsibility, culminating in a project management position. Bachelor's degree with PE and Architect Registration highly desirable. Master's degree holders: Minimum of 3 years full-time US commercial or industrial and/or residential construction industry experience with increasing levels of responsibility. Previous teaching experience preferred.
Salary	Base salary $51,329-$63,057, negotiable based on education and experience. Opportunity exists for teaching additional classes depending on qualifications and interest in the area.
Benefits	Health, dental, vision, life, and long-term disability insurance plans. Accrued sick leave, dependent tuition waiver, and retirement plan options.
Start Date	Winter 2019
Location	Monroe County Community College has been providing a variety of post-secondary opportunities for the residents of Monroe County, Michigan since 1964. Monroe County, with a population of 159,900, offers a quality rural and urban life style well situated between Detroit, Ann Arbor, and Toledo, Ohio. Graduate study is available at the University of Toledo, Wayne State University, Eastern Michigan University, The University of Michigan, and the University of Detroit.
Deadline	Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Application Process

Interested candidates should submit an MCCC faculty employment application (available at <http://www.monroeccc.edu/jobs/>), letter of interest, resume, transcripts (official transcripts required upon hire), and two letters of recommendation to: Linda Marsh, Human Resources Specialist; Monroe County Community College; 1555 S. Raisinville Road; Monroe, MI 48161; mmccutchan@monroeccc.edu.

Monroe County Community College is an equal opportunity institution and adheres to a policy that no qualified person shall be discriminated against because of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, gender, marital status, disability, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, height, weight, or veteran's status in any program or activity for which it is responsible.