FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCCC AWARDS THE JOANNE D. SMITH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – Monroe County Community College has awarded the Joanne D. Smith Memorial Scholarship to Savannah Ostrowski. The scholarship is to cover costs of tuition, book and fees.

Ostrowski, of Monroe, is a 2013 graduate of Ida High School and is currently studying Nursing at MCCC. Her most recent community involvement has been in the Monroe County Medical Reserve Corps (MRC) as a student nurse volunteer. She is married to Sean Ostrowski and the daughter of Matthew and Melissa Horrigan.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must be enrolled in a transfer program, maintain full-time student enrollment status of twelve credit hours, and a member of College/Community Band or Agora Chorale during the scholarship year. Also, the student must be a U.S. Citizen and a Monroe County resident. Preference will be given to an Ida High School graduate and someone who demonstrates financial need.

For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4206.
