FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE FOUNDATION AT MCCC AWARDS THE NAMASTE DAY SCHOLARSHIP

MONROE, Mich. – The Foundation at Monroe County Community College has awarded the Namaste Day Scholarship to Adam Stewart. The $500 scholarship is to be used for tuition, fees, books and supplies.

Stewart of Monroe is a 2020 graduate of Airport High School. He is studying welding while attending MCCC. He's a volunteer at his church as an usher and worked at River Raisin National Battlefield Park. Adam is the son of Dana and Lara Stewart.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a student must express interest in and have a strong history of community service, be at least a part-time student, defined as six billable contact hours per semester at MCCC, and agree to speak at the Namaste Day event held on the MCCC campus.

For more information on available scholarships and financial aid, please contact the MCCC Financial Aid Office at (734) 384-4135. If you are interested in information about funding a scholarship, contact The Foundation at MCCC at (734) 384-4214.
