Course Description	<ul> <li>This course is a survey of American history from the time of exploration and the Colonial Era to the end of Reconstruction. It will examine the institutions of the peoples of America—native and immigrant—and the changes fashioned in the new environment. Special emphasis is placed on the growth and development of American democracy. The purpose of this course is to have the student understand the complexity and essential content of the American past.</li> <li>The complete Outline of Instruction can be found at http://www.monroeccc.edu/outlines/.</li> </ul>
COURSE BEGINS	Monday, May 10, 2021
COURSE ENDS	Saturday, July 3, 2021
REGISTRATION PROCESS	Students must register for the course through the College's regular registration process. If you are a first-time online student at MCCC you must complete an online orientation course (ONL-001). You will be automatically enrolled into the online orientation course, which will provide you with critical information on the technical, study, reading and writing skills necessary to be a successful online student. This course will be listed in your MyCourses module in Brightspace and there will be 4 modules to complete. Please note that all four modules will NOT be visible when you first login, but will become visible once you complete the requirements for each module. Please complete SU2021-ONL-001-L1 by May 7, 2021 . Failure to complete the online orientation by the above date may result in deregistration from your Summer 2021 online course .
PROCTORED EXAMS OR ASSIGNMENTS	None, all coursework is completed online.
Additional Information: Proctored Exams or Assignments	Some online classes require students to take exams at authorized, proctored locations. Test proctoring centers are authorized testing locations where a staff person administers a test or assignment. If students are not able to arrange transportation to MCCC's main campus for testing, a proctored test site must be arranged. Students near the MCCC campus can take the test in the Testing Center. Additional information on the Testing Center can be found at https://www.monroeccc.edu/testing . It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements for proctoring with his or her instructor. Students should also be aware that some testing sites have service fees, which are the responsibility of the student.
Course Materials and Textbook Information	Textbook information can be found on the MCCC Bookstore's webpage, http://www.monroeccc.edu/bookstore/ . Textbook information is posted approximately one month prior to the beginning of the semester.
