Summer 2022 Semester

COURSE: BUSAD 170 L1	Instructor: D. Reiman
Small Business and Entrepreneurship	EMAIL: dreiman@monroeccc.edu
 There are many benefits of online courses at MCCC: Less restrictive scheduling Convenience Intensive self-study Course materials are accessible 24 hours a day 7 days a week Some students struggle in an online format while other students excel. Students who excel in an online format are: Highly self-motivated Have strong computer skills Possess good time management skills Know how to study independently Possess good communication skills Online classes at MCCC are NOT self-paced. Instruction is delivered in an entirely webbased format. Students must complete exams, assignments, etc. by specified due dates. Some exams and assignments may be required to be completed at an authorized 	Brightspace Online courses use Brightspace course management system as the means of communication between the students and the instructor. It is the student's responsibility to be able to log into Brightspace and maintain his or her computer setup to work properly with Brightspace. The Brightspace Login can be found on the College's webpage, www.monroeccc.edu. Brightspace courses are made available to students on the day the course begins. Please see the Start Date below.
 location as established by the instructor. When taking an online class students are responsible for: A reliable computer with Internet access and Microsoft Word; course specific software will be described below Knowing how to email attachments Maintaining his or her own computer and Internet connection; technical issues are NOT acceptable excuses for not keeping up with due dates Having access to a printer if needed for personal use of online materials It is the student's responsibility to log into Brightspace multiple times each week to keep up with communication, assignments and other coursework. 	MCCC Student Email It is essential that online students use their MCCC student email account. This will be the primary means of email communication between you and your instructor. For more information about activating your MCCC student email account, visit the college's webpage at www.monroeccc.edu. Course Description	This course introduces students to small business and entrepreneurship. It is designed for students interested in starting or working for a small business, those interested in freelance or private contracting work (artists, caterers, daycare operators, welders, electricians, photographers, etc.), business majors and others interested in small business and entrepreneurship. Course topics include funding a business, developing a business plan, franchising, hiring and managing employees, marketing, personal selling and ethics. The focus of this course is on the types of small businesses that students might actually start versus high-growth businesses reliant on venture capital. It covers practical aspects of small businesses, and the unique challenges and opportunities presented by family-owned businesses. Recognizing that entrepreneurs may start multiple businesses life-cycle from business idea formulation and evaluation to harvesting or closing a business. The complete Outline of Instruction can be found at http://www.monroeccc.edu/outlines/ .
COURSE BEGINS	Monday, May 9, 2022
COURSE ENDS	Saturday, July 2, 2022
REGISTRATION PROCESS	Students must register for the course through the College's regular registration process. If you are a first-time online student at MCCC you must complete an online orientation course (ONL-001). You will be automatically enrolled into the online orientation course, which will provide you with critical information on the technical, study, reading and writing skills necessary to be a successful online student. This course will be listed in your MyCourses module in Brightspace and there will be 4 modules to complete. Please note that all four modules will NOT be visible when you first login, but will become visible once you complete the requirements for each module. Please complete SU2022-ONL-001-L1 by May 6, 2022 . Failure to complete the online orientation by the above date may result in deregistration from your Summer 2022 online course .
PROCTORED EXAMS OR ASSIGNMENTS	There are no proctored exams for this course. Assignments, exams, quizzes, and online discussion boards will have due dates, but you are not required to come to campus to complete any of the coursework.
Additional Information: Proctored Exams or Assignments	Some online classes require students to take exams at authorized, proctored locations. Test proctoring centers are authorized testing locations where a staff person administers a test or assignment. If students are not able to arrange transportation to MCCC's main campus for testing, a proctored test site must be arranged. Students near the MCCC campus can take the test in the Testing Center. Additional information on the Testing Center can be found at https://www.monroeccc.edu/testing. It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements for proctoring with his or her instructor.
