

STUDENT ADVISING

The advising system is an important aspect of the total student counseling program. Deans and Directors are expected to assist with the advising of students as well as provide technical assistance as questions regarding their specific area arise during the period when Faculty are advising students.

12-27-65, 6-24-68, 11-22-99