

Honors Program

The purpose of Monroe County Community College's (MCCC) Honors Program is to attract a diverse body of high-achieving and highly motivated students and provide them with opportunities for service leadership and community-based civic-engagement combined with advanced academic scholarship.

The Honors Program is committed to delivering measurably deeper learning outcomes that demonstrate the ability to acquire, analyze, and synthesize knowledge in a field of study or from multiple disciplines.