Narrative:

On this date, Complainant told the officer that upon arriving home, today, she observed several small scratches on her right front door. Complainant said that she was parked in three different locations, between 8:00am and 3:30pm, Namely, Lot C, lot L, and Lot A. The officer observed the scratches, and thought that marks were not deep into the paint and might be rubbed out. There were several slight scratches, but again, very LIGHT scratches. Complainant said that she is having no trouble with anyone, and no boyfriend trouble, or anything that would constitute this.

At this time, Complainant was advised to contact the Monroe County Sheriff's office to make a report. Complainant asked if the cameras could be looked at, and again, the officer said that he didn't feel that this was intentional, but appears that someone "brushed" by, scratching it. The officer has nothing further at this time.
