Narrative:

Complainant -
Vehicle Info.- 2006 Chevy 4dr.

On this date, complainant stated that she was east bound on the south entrance road to the college, and coming around the turn, near lot 4, slid on the icy road, striking the curb, and appeared to bust the axel of the front right tire. The axel appeared busted, as the tire was almost broken off. Complainant contacted A-1 Towing, and the officer stood by until the vehicle was towed. There were no injuries, and complainant was advised to contact the Monroe County Sheriff's Office, to make a police report. The officer has nothing further at this time.
